A Place at the Table (APATT) is a ministry providing comfort and hope to those grieving the loss of a spouse. Through a series of events (online or in person), you’ll learn how to navigate grief from speakers and videos while connecting with others encountering a similar season in life. You’ll also receive resources to help you heal outside of group events.

Our goal is to provide comfort, understanding and healing in a safe environment for you to discuss what you’re facing emotionally, physically and spiritually. We pray you feel encouraged with the hope only Jesus can provide.

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

II CORINTHIANS 1:3-4

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

Coffee & Chat  |  January – December
Online or in person

Coffee & Chat is a gathering of widows and widowers that provides:

- instruction and learning from speakers and group discussions
- holiday support seminars in November and December
- resources to help with healing (books, articles, information of other grief agencies and services, etc.).
