- Why is it important for us to recognize when our passions are becoming obsessions?
- What’s something you’re passionate about that might border on becoming an obsession?
- How has that negatively impacted other areas of your life?
- How might sexual passions relate to what we’re talking about?
- How would you feel if you were forced to give up something you tend to obsess over? Why?
- Does replacing one obsession with another one solve our deeper problem? Why or why not?
- Describe what this means to you: Don’t decrease your passions. Increase your praise.
- How can you allow your passions to cause you to praise God this week?

Activity
Hand each student a note card and a pen and ask them to anonymously write down any questions they have about sex or dating. Then collect the pieces of paper, and explain that the questions will be given to the student pastor, who will do their best to answer them during an upcoming teaching time.
